ISLAND HIDEAWAY

Caqalai Island is situated in pristine waters south of Ovalau Island and within sight of Moturiki Island. It is a paradise for those wanting to get away from the usual tourist and backpacking areas. Caqalai truly is an untouched hideaway.

White-sand beaches fringing the island make snorkelling a dream. Walk out to Snake Island and explore the sea creatures or just swim, snorkel, chill out, beach comb, read a book in peace, chat to the locals or day dream on the beach.

If you are looking for a little more adventure become a FIJIAN FOR A DAY with Mr Epeli Vunasau, a respected elder of Niubasaga Village. Discover the excitement of mud crab hunting at dusk, fishing for your dinner, short treks to other villages in Moturiki and learning about local Fijian customs and culture.

Read more about Caqalai Island in the Fiji Edition of the Lonely Planet Guide. (Caqalai is pronounced thung-ga-lai)
